When, however, the Consul France goes on the state his views of the privileges accorded to French Mail steamers, and virtually makes it a matter for his discretion whether the process of the Supreme Court of the liefactory, and the value of the Company's Property Colony shall be served on the Messageries is greatly in excess of the cost price at which it Maritimes steamers or not, it is impossible for me to follow him in his contention.

Government House, Hongkong, 21st January, 1889. My Lord - With reference to my despatch.

No. 308, of the 5th of November, and to previlege of ex-territoriality granted to French and German Mail Steamers, I deem it right to bring to Your Lordship's notice an incident which has recently occurred here, and which having given rise to some public indiguation, was the subject of a question in the Legislative Council, 2. On the 10th instant a warrant was issued from the Supreme Court of Hongkong for the arrest of one R. C. Passmore, a debtor, I believe. to a considerable amount in this Colony, who had taken passage in, and was actually on board of the Messageries Maritimes Steamship Cali donfor, then on the point of leaving the port. The Acting Registrar of the Supreme Court despatched a bailiff to the French Consul, with the Warrant, and a request in writing to facilitate its execution, and accordingly the Consul endor

"Lie porteur est autorisé à arrêter M. R. C Passmore à bord du Paquebôt poste Franto which he subscribed his signature and affixed his official seal. 3.—The bailiff thereupon proceeded to the French mail steamer, where he presented himself to the Captain and producing the Warran explained the cause of his presence on board The Captain appears to have refused at first permit the arrest; and when his attention was drawn to the Consul's endorsement upon th Warrant, he declared that it did not satisfy him and required a written order authorizing him to allow Mr. Passmore's removal. Finally, however, having communicated by letter with his Consul, who happened to be at the time on board a French man-of-war, he consented to the arrest being effected, and Passmore, accordingly, accompanied the bailiff on shore.

4.—It turned out subsequently that the sconding debtor had sufficient funds with him for the payment of all his creditors, and the affair caused special indignation on account of a belief that he would have succeeded in escaping, and in thus defrauding his creditors, but for the accidental presence in the harbour of a French Ship of War.

5.—Though this belief has preved to be incorrect, the incident nevertheless serves to illustrate the extent to which the enforcement of law in our own waters is practically within the discretion of foreign shipmesters, and the anomaly o conceding the privilege of ships of war to vessels carrying passengers for hire.

A. S. WATSON AND OO., LIMITED.

The following is the report of the General Manager, for the year ending the 31st Decem ber, 1888, for presentation to the Shareholders at the ordinary general meeting of the Company, to be held at the Hongkong Dispensary, on Monday, the 13th May :-To the Shareholders of Messrs. A. S. Watson and Co., CENTLEMEN.—I now beg to lay before you a State-ment of the Company's business, with a Balance Sheet for the your ending the 31st December, 1838.

The result of the year's working compares favour. ably with that of the previous year, but better results might have been attained if we had had more working oom. We have been very much cramped for space in sarly every department and especially so in our nanufacturing and export departments: A remedy will be proposed at an Extraordinary General Mosting, and if the Resolutions then put to carried, the Company will possess every facility for the economic onduct and expansion of its business, and have in its own hands all the premises likely to be required for

to use in the Colony. I have thought it desirable to establish an Insurance Fund for covering the risk of Fire at such branches are uninsurable except at a prohibitive premium, and of Marine risks for local shipmonts. I have also taken the precaution of regis ering abels of our most valuable proprietary articles under the Trade Marks Ordinance and Hone Acts, as the protection of our trade in these articles is a matter of the greatest importance to the Company.

The net profits of the Company for the twelve munths under review, after providing for all bad and doubtful debte, and including $411.47 brought forward and. The complainant gave them in charge for from last year, amounts to $65,431.68. We paid an atealing a goose. The defendants offered to pay interim dividend of At per cent. in November last, absorbing $14,700.00, and I now propose to pay a further dividend of 64 per cent. (making 13 per cent. for the year) which will absorb $24.700.00, to energy $5,000.00 to the Permanent Reserve Fund, $5,000.00 to. the Reserve Fund to meet contingencies or for other constables, equalizing dividends (in accordance with the Clause The first defen of Article 113), and $5,0: 0.00 to a General Insurance Fund, leaving a balance of $1.081.63 to be carried

THE HORBERIES AT THE HONGKONG HOTEL. Li Chi Yan, boy, employed at the Hongkong Hotel, was charged with stealing a Waterbury watch, the property of Mr. J. McInnes, and other articles from the hotel. Mr. Wotton appeared for the prosecution, and

Mr. Caldwell for the defence. Mr. Wotton said he should call some evidence with reference to a search of the defendant box which had been made on the 31st March and of which no mention had been made the last time the case was before the Court. Sergeant Mann said on the Slat March was reported to him that a robbery had taken place in the Hotel and that's number of articles had been stolen from Miss Amy Sherwin, who was living there at the time. He went to the Hotel. The prisoner was in charge of the rooms and had a duplicate key. Witness searched his box and found the articles now in Court. John Molnnes, assistant at the Hotel, recalled, said the spirit lamp in Court was reported to have been lost by one of the lodgers in the Hotel, about three weeks are. In reply to Mr. Caldwell, the witness said the spirit lamp produced was of the same descrip tion as that lost. The prisoner was not present when the report was made to him.

Sergeant Macdonald said he found the spirit lamp and cigarette holder in prisoner's box at the same time as he found the Waterbury watch. The prisoner told him the spirit lamp was given him by an American gentleman who had been staying in the Hotel and the cigarette holder by another lodger.

Mr. Wotton said he might mention in connection with this case, what had no doubt come to his Worship's knowledge, that robberies in the Hotel had been very frequent and serious lately. It was a very difficult thing to obtain convictions in cases of this kind, where the owners of the property stolen were persons passing through the place, because of the difficulty in bringing evidence. He mentioned these facts necessary (as the money can be profitably employed). as a reason why more substantial bail should be $66.700 additional capital will be sufficient for the required. We do not hold ourselves esponsible for the opinion by our expressed Correspondents. STATIONS FOR THE PEAK TRAMWAY. TO THE EDITOR OF THE "DAILY PRESS."

SIB,—As an occasional traveller on the Peak ramway I crave your indulgence for a complaint I have to make, a suggestion I would like to offer. The tramway is very well worked, and the cars if not ornamental or luxurious are sufficient for the purposes of the traffic. Once on board I at least am content. But there is the getting on board, a job not unatleuded with difficulty to ladies at the lower terminus. You have to squeeze between the car and two dirty coal trucks and hoist yourself up as best you can. If the weather he fine and you have to wait some ten minutes you must stand in the $806,708.02 | son or about in the adjacent road; if it be wet you must squally wait in the rain. There ought c. to be a convenient little platform neatly covered over to afford protection to waiting passengers from sun-and rain. The same remarks apply with equal force to the Gap Station, which 72.047.04 indeed even more requires shelter, as in addition 947.99 to sun and rain it is exposed to the fury of strong winds. I would also suggest the construction of small platforms at Bowen and. Kennedy Roads, which are supposed to be stopping places; but which are unprovided with any sort of platforms. Indeed, I should be puzzled how to get off the car at all anywhere near the last named road. The Company is doing well, and will pay big ividends to the fortunate shareholders. I think harefore that they might so far consider the comfort of passengers as to provide sheltered stations with platforms of an elevation that would

> The Paris Siècle, which is the recognised organ of M. Theyenet, the Minister of Justice, Gil Blue, states that a few weeks ago Lord Lytton intimated to the Marquis de Breteuil that he would like to meet General Boulanger, " without specifying whother he was actuated b mere curiosity, political considerations, or a feeling of personal sympathy." A quiet dinner party was arranged by M. de Breteuil. Gil Blas added, that subsequently General Brugere, M. Carnot's secretary, happening to meet Lord Lytton at a diplomatic reception, thought it right to remonstrate with his lord ship on the subject. The latter replied, "Pardon me, but does this reprimand come from yourself personally, or have you been instructed to that effect by the President of the Republic? In that case, I should like to know why the President does not formulate his complaint through the regular channel." General Brugere protested that he spoke only in his own name. "I am quite persuaded it must be so," the Ambassador replied, "for in London your representative, M. Waddington, is in no way interfered with if he chooses to meet at dinner Mr. Gladstone or any other member of the Opposition." The Siècle adds:-"It will be understood that General Brugere desires to maintain the utmost reserve on this subject, and should be the last man to talk about an incident as to which the last word has not been said, but which, as met forth above, is altogether inaccorate." The Siècle (says the Paris correspondent of the Standard) is an official organ; but those who inspire it are utterly without justification in the pretension they put forward to an Ambassador whom he shall or shall not meet
